

SCGC Members Receive Scholarships at WGI World Championships

SCGC is proud to announce that three circuit performers were awarded with scholarships at the WGI World Championships over the past two weekends of competition in Dayton, Ohio.

Michael Rosales, a member of Eklipse Winterguard, is currently a freshman at Vol State Community College and he received a Fred J. Miller Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $1,000.

Congratulations Michael!

Devon Michael Cotter, a senior from Station Camp High School, also received a $1,000 Fred J. Miller Memorial Scholarship.

Devon plans to attend Tennessee Tech University and major in chemical engineering. Congratulations Devon!

Sarah Dickey, a marimba player finishing her fourth year with Music City Mystique, won a Fred J. Miller Memorial Scholarship worth $1,000. This was Sarah's eighth consecutive season competing as an SCGC performer while also completing three summers of drum corps with the Mandarins, Boston Crusaders, and Blue Knights! Sarah is a junior at Jacksonville State University and is studying music education. Congratulations Sarah!

